DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to the amendment filed July 26, 2005 in which claim 6 was amended and claims 24-25 were added.

The 102(e) rejection as anticipated by Kessell is withdrawn in view of the amendment to the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 6 and its dependents and claims 24-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The original filed specification does not support "gasoline, diesel and kerosene" as a carrier (claim 6). The specification teaches that these fuels may be used to prepare a fuel composition comprising the metal oxide dispersion.

The original filed specification does not support fuels as carriers (claim 24) nor does it support alcohol as a carrier (claim 25).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1714

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 6-9, 12-14 and 24-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McLaughlin (US 5,948,323).

McLaughlin teaches colloidal-sized particles of solid chemicals that act as smoke suppressants and flame retardants (see abstract). The chemicals are milled to reduce their size and dispersed in a fluid vehicle such as water or organic liquids such as ethylene glycol (alcohol) and fats (esters) (see abstract and claims 13-14). The solid chemicals include antimony trioxide and a mixed metal oxide of zinc and magnesium (see col. 2, lines 8-29). The solid chemical and fluid are prepared as a slurry and processed in an agitated media mill (see col. 2, lines 51-55; col. 3, lines 47-58). It is also preferred that the slurry further comprise a dispersion agent (see col. 2, lines 64-65). The final slurry comprises 5-60 wt % of the comminuted solid chemicals, 40-95 wt % fluid vehicle and 2-25 wt % dispersion agent (see col. 5, lines 38-42).

In Example 3, McLaughlin adds additional water to the solid chemical, water and dispersion mixture. Since McLaughlin teaches the same method, the dispersion of his invention would inherently remain suspended for at least one month.

Accordingly, McLaughlin teaching all the limitations of the claims anticipates the claims.

5. Applicant's arguments filed have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that McLaughlin fails to teach the claimed carriers.

The examiner respectfully disagrees. McLaughlin teaches that the carrier may be ethylene glycol (an alcohol) or fats (esters). Therefore, McLaughlin teaches the claimed carrier.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
